DESCRIPTION:	This course will allow teachers to apply applicable Food, Land, and People (FLP) STEAM lessons, in addition to National Ag Matrix STEAM lessons in their curriculum during the school year. This will include real world application of STEAM. Participants will explore opportunities for art to naturally fit into the STEM arena as an applied subject. The course will provide an overview of strategies, materials, curriculum development, and research related to assisting the Pre-K- 12 th grade educators to better understand the interdependence of agriculture, the environment, and human needs through lessons in multiple curriculum areas: language arts, science, health, art, consumer education, mathematics, social studies, geography, and more. The information will be given as an online correspondence course.
NATIONAL BOARD FOR PROFESSIONAL TEACHING STANDARDS:	The National Board for Professional Teaching Standards seeks to identify and recognize teachers who effectively enhance student learning and demonstrate a high level of knowledge, skills, abilities and commitments. This course aligns with all 5 of those standards.
OBJECTIVES:	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Understand how agricultural concepts can be integrated into the curriculum by applying STEAM activities with real world applications. To heighten the awareness level of how agriculture impacts our raw resources, processing, and our relationship with food, land, and people.2. Use STEAM focus lessons available in FLP and the AITC Curriculum Matrix, guide group activities (large, small, and cooperative), provide for individual differences and learning styles, and evaluate students' learning.3. Develop understanding, thinking skills, creativity, and improve communication skills in the learning environment with students.4. Use FLP lessons and the AITC Curriculum Matrix to see how they integrate curriculum and reference the lesson alignment to the National Core Standards. Develop an understanding of the relationship and ties to the ND State Standards.5. Identify and use learning activities to facilitate healthy food choices and gain perspectives regarding the connections of food, land, and people.

6. To use instructional media from AITC Matrix, FLP lessons and other related materials.
